MOVING TO BUSHWICK

New Gallery Address:

SOHO20 Gallery
56 Bogart Street
Brooklyn NY 11206

SOHO20 is thrilled to announce that we have secured a new gallery space in the 56 Bogart building, which over the years has become the heart of the art community in Bushwick. Home to many other galleries and nonprofits, our new street-level location will serve as a launching pad for new programmatic initiatives, as well as connect us closer to our community. We are excited to relocate to a neighborhood that is more attuned to our mission and organizational aspirations.

First opening its doors in Soho in 1973, then moving to Chelsea in 2001, SOHO20 has shifted locations numerous times, continuing to thrive within and alongside the burgeoning art scenes. This next move comes at a very important time for our growth both internally, as well as in tandem with the re-emergence of global conversations about supporting the practice of women artists.

SOHO20 Gallery is a non-profit, artist-run gallery that has been promoting the work of women artists through gallery exhibitions and public programming since 1973. SOHO20 Artist Inc. was founded by a group of 20 women artists intent on achieving professional excellence in an industry sorely lacking in opportunities for women. Over forty years after the creation of this gallery the issue of underrepresentation of female artists is still very prevalent. Through this relocation, we strive to continue our mission to create greater opportunities for women artists.
