July 16, Saturday, 2-5 PM: Boston Sculptors Gallery: BSG is celebrating its 30th Anniversary with a blockbuster show of its members' work. The gallery is Boston's premier showcase for sculpture. I have a brand new piece, In the Hands of Fate, with stone, photo on silk and gloves.

The show is up from July 13-August 14th. There are two openings – the second being on SOWA

First Friday, August 5, 5-8:30PM: Boston Sculptors Gallery, 486 Harrison Ave, Boston, 617-482-7781

August 1, Monday, 4-6PM: Boston Sculptors Gallery celebrates 30 years at historic Highfield Hall in Falmouth, MA. Glove Globe is my contribution to the gallery show. There are sculptures installed throughout the extensive grounds and indoors. The site is a delight to explore with restored gardens, walking trails and conservation land. It's a wonderful destination to visit. Highfield Hall and Gardens, 56 Highfield Drive, Falmouth, MA,

The Carving Studio and Sculpture Center which I founded in 1987 in West Rutland, VT is celebrating its 35th anniversary. The popular Members Show is now installed in Gallery. The Annual Sculptfest of outdoor sculpture will take place on September 10th. Carving Studio and Sculpture Center, 636 Marble Street, West Rutland, VT, 802-438-2097.

Diane Churchill

Diane Churchill is a recipient of an "Arts Alive" grant for an Art/Music collaboration with composer Mark Attebery. The grant is for an exhibit of Churchill's paintings paired with an original composition composed and recorded by Mark. The exhibit is entitled Tone Color.

This project is made possible from the funds from the Statewide Community Re grants Program, a regrant program of the New York State Council on the Arts with support of the Office of the Governor and the New York State Legislature and administered by ArtsWestchester.

Diane was recently interviewed by Greta Berman who is the art editor for an online publication for and about women over 60 called Persimmon Tree. Her particular interest is synesthesia. She will feature Diane's work in the fall issue of the Persimmon Tree.

ATOA - I participated in an Artists Talk On Art panel on color on February 15. Organized by Monroe Hodder, the panelists were myself, Ann Harmon and Monroe Hodder. The link to see it is <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=iNRARwrqhlo> and I begin about 8 minutes in. The host, Barry Kostrinski, creates a relaxed and supportive environment and invites artists to plan panels. A good experience.

The Hammond Museum - I am in the February Virtual Show of the Hammond Museum and Japanese Stroll Garden in North Salem, NY. The reception, a fabulous affair of music, poetry and art, as well as the exhibit can be seen on their web site. The virtual show continues for a year.

I am pleased to receive an Artists Support Grant from the Arts Council of Rockland. The 2021 grantees were just announced.

Diane Churchill is included in the show "Our Connection With Nature" at Sitka Gallery in Shirley, Massachusetts. This physical show which will also be online and on Artsy for one year and is curated by Beth Barry. The opening is April 23 and the link for the facebook event is <https://www.facebook.com/events/2432698133704312>.

Edie Cohn

SOHO20 Gallery artist Edie Cohn participated in "Making Your Own Career with Public Art". A juried program that offered the nuts and bolts of becoming a successful public artist. Durham-based artist, David Wilson, and Cynthia Deis of Triangle Artworks, co-hosted the 6 weeks online course.

Edie has been invited to join Le Galeriste, a Montreal-based company that incorporates the art of international artists into wearable art. Check out Edie's colorful line of clothing here.
